

RURAL BANKERS ASSOCIATION OF THE PHILIPPINES

Circular-Letter to All Rural Banks Series of 2010

The Rural Bankers` Association of the Philippines (RBAP) through its Rural Bankers Research and Development Foundation, Inc. (RBRDFI) is conducting a 1-day Seminar - Basic Operational, Market and Credit Risk Management specifically for all rural bank managers and other officers in the various regions of the country.

The seminar is designed to give the participants an overview of risk management and its benefits; credit, market and operational risks and some best practices.

The seminar- workshop will be conducted at the Licaros Hall, 2nd Floor, RBAP Building, A. Soriano Jr. Avenue Cor. Arzobispo Street, Intramuros, Manila on the following date and time:

	Date	Time
First Offering	October 21,2010	8:30 am-5:30 pm

Participation in the seminar-workshop entails a registration fee of P2,500 per participant Inclusive of snacks (am and pm) and lunch. Payments (in cash or checks) may be made directly at RBRDFI or by remitting the amount to the savings deposit account of RBRDFI at the Land Bank of the Philippines Intramuros Branch. The Savings Account No. of RBRDFI is 0012-1046-26.

Due to the limited number of participants (35) set by the resource person per offering, acceptance of accomplished Nomination Forms (copy attached) is on a first-come-first-served basis. However, participation of rural banks' nominee/s is subject to the confirmation of acceptance of payments or proof of payments and approval by RBRDFI.

All participating rural banks are requested to make their reservations soonest and submit a copy of proof of payment together with the accomplished Nomination Forms on or before October 13, 2010.

Confederations and federations of Rural Banks who would like to host the conduct of the seminar workshop for their tellers in their localities are advised to inform RBRDFI immediately to avoid conflict on schedules with other interested confederations federations.
